Ponchatoula Schools Selected By Three Senoritas from Honduras To Learn English Language

THESE THREE DARK-EYED Spanish beauties arrived in Ponchatoula on Friday, August 23, and were immediately enrolled in the Ponchatoula public schools

Two of the girls are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cleneay of Lima, Honduras, and are named Lelia and Olivia, the third is their close friend, Clara Garcia.

Lelia, the elder of the two sisters, can speak a little English, due to a chance meeting with Julia Welles Hawkins during the time she was teaching in Honduras.

Mr. Cleneay told Julia of having gone to Honduras 35 years ago as an employee of the United Fruit Company, and of becoming one of the overseers. He later married a beautiful Spanish girl and their daughters were reared in Spanish, the father never having time to devote to teaching them English.

Mr. Cleneay expressed regret that his daughters could not speak English and Julia told him that if he would arrange to have his daughter brought to the English school in Lima she would do her best to teach her the simple English words.

Miss Garcia's father is also an overseer for the United Fruit Co. and he, too, was desirous of having his daughter learn English so, when the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Cleneay told Clara that they were going to the United States to study English, Clara implored the father to allow her to accompany her two friends here.

With all arrangements completed, the trio set out from Lima

August 20 and arrived in New Orleans where agents of United Fruit Company put them on a bus for Ponchatoula, and notified Arthur Jones, friend of Mr. Cleneay, of their time of arrival.

The girls are studying mathematics, have two classes in English, and take three hours in Spanish with the Spanish class. Here the girls assist in Spanish, and are, in turn, assisted in English. Clara and Olivia are Freshmen at the school.

All three of the girls are living at the home of Mrs. L. C. Wilkins on Highway 51 and ride to and from school on the school bus.
